

CARLA DELVILLAGGIO has entertained across the country from Miami to Las Vegas to New York City. She has the look and sound of "The Greatest Star," the incomparable Barbra Streisand. From the hair down to the trademark nails, and wearing meticulously detailed replicas of iconic concert gowns, she is "Simply Streisand" in every way. Carla recreates the excitement and high energy vocals with a beauty and purity of sound essential for the ballads so closely associated with this legendary singer.

She offers a wide range of show formats, along with options for shows with tracks, piano only, 3 piece combo, and 5 or 8 piece band. Among her shows are

"Streisand: Then and Now", "Holiday Memories", and "Streisand: The Way She Was."

Her NYC debut, where she did three completely different shows at the Laurie Beechman Theatre, garnered rave reviews!

In 2012, she re-opened the Bon Soir Nightclub, the very room in which Barbra herself made her professional debut.
